Critical Analysis of an Educational film...

Introduction

Critical Analysis of a film.

What is critical analysis of a film?

Analyzing film like analyzing literature (fiction texts, etc) is a form of rhetorical analysis. critically analyzing and evaluating discourse including words, phrases and images.

Having a clear argument and supporting evidence in every bit as critical to film analysis as to other forms of academic writing.

How do you write critical analysis of a movie.

- ① Create an outline.
- ② Introduction.

what is film review?

Film reviews are written for the general public by usually journalists or other non-academics and appear in newspapers, magazines or online around the time the film is released in theatres.

Their purpose is to describe the plot, characters, director, etc in order to help determine whether or not a film should be watched?

What are educational films? OR which films are educational?

An educational film is a film or movie whose primary purpose is to educate. Educational films have been used in classrooms as an alternative to other teaching methods.

Such films spread education and awareness. Films teach the students how to express themselves. They become a source of education. Films depict actors playing certain roles. Students can also be shown documentaries in which people have unique skill sets demonstrate them to the audience.

Formal Analysis in film

- It is a form of film criticism that is concerned with the technical, visual and auditory elements that comprises films.

How does a teacher analyse a film? & why?
Collect notes about the plot, symbolism, questions you have about historical accuracy, the score or other musical contributions, images, topics that capture your attention.

After viewing the film, conduct research to answer the questions you have developed and begin writing your review.

My FAMILY

- I belong to a middle class family.
- There are four people in my family, I, my mom, sister & brother. In fact I lost my dad at a very small age! 😞

- My grandparents are no more.
- I have my cousins, who mean the world to me!
- My mom is a housewife, and my sister & jiju work in office.

- My mom really cares for me a lot. Not even 1 day of my can go without her.

- My sister, had taken the responsibility of the house at a very low age due to my father's death. She has raised me up like her daughter & I love her a lot ❤️

- We, family enjoy a lot we plan trips & go out for dinner frequently. They are a big support for me! I am really thankful to them & I love them the most.
