3. Some apps for Lecture Capturing System (LCS)

1. Office Lens (Android)

The first one in the lecture recording application list is an app developed by Microsoft. This is commonly known as Microsoft Office Lens. It is a tool that helps to render pictures into document formats, which can be read on whiteboards.

Moreover, along with it, this also allows the user to cut and trim pictures and ultimately converting them into PDF or word, or PPT files. Also, it is almost a handy scanner that within a matter of seconds can digitalize blackboard or any whiteboard notes. It also helps in finding different business cards as well as documents.

2. Rev Voice Recorder (iOS and Android)

The second one on the best speech recording app list is Rev Voice Recorder, and it is an app that provides the user with the simplest ways of recording voice notes. It has a powerful transcription mechanism that doesn't have any ads at all. The user can use this app to record any memos, notes of meetings or go for recording lectures and interviews. Once one starts using it, it will become an instant favorite because of its versatile features, since it is designed to get used in any type of situation.

Not only is that, but the Rev Voice recorder app extremely capable of capturing great audio with impressive sound quality. What it does is that it allows the user the audio they recorded on the go without much effort. Other features of this application include editing the recordings and organizing them on the iPhone. Also, the user can sync these on iTunes and share them on apps such as Evernote, Dropbox, or other clouds, whichever is preferable to the user.

3. Voice Memos (iOS)

The Voice Memos app allows the user to record the audio through iPhone's built-in microphone through any Bluetooth device or external microphone. The user is also left with the choice to save the names and tags with the recordings and save them in both compressed and uncompressed formats. The free voice memos app is available on the app store, from where anyone can download them easily.

4. Super Notes (iOS and Android)

Super Notes are probably the easiest application for taking notes with a click of a button. One simply has to open it and enter the data such as numbers, shopping lists, etc. One of the main reasons for its popularity is that it provides unlimited text storage. The material design in the user interface gives it a very cool and aesthetic look, which can charm anyone. It also has a dynamic splash screen which provides a very useful and handy tool for optimizing the notes.
