Action Taken Report Based On The Curriculum Feedback Academic Year:2022 – 2023

Feedback regarding the curriculum was gathered from Alumni, Employers, Practise teaching schools, Teachers, and Students. After IQAC analyzed the Feedback that was gathered, the member stalked about the various findings from the analysis reports. During the conversation, certain proposals surfaced, and they are noted in terms of the action that needs to be done.

1. Analysis and action Taken of students feedback-

- a. Almost everyone was happy with the majority of teaching methods and the amount of time it took to finish the syllabus with correct understanding. Students' internal assessment indicates that teachers' encouragement of students to actively participate in a variety of activities has improved students' overall development. The additional classes or sessions were very helpful for a student's personality development.
- b. For more improvement and students satisfaction -- A selected few ICT-related topics will be taught in-depth in the computer lab, providing every student with practise, in order to enhance learning and increase student satisfaction. In addition, additional efforts will be made to improve the English vocabulary of other vernacular students who struggle to speak English fluently and present lectures.

3. Analysis and action taken of teacher's feedback:

The majority of the faculty members expressed satisfaction with the schedule, methods of instruction, curriculum, evaluation procedures, and facilities. They were also pleased with the amount of latitude given to assessment techniques. The comments on reference materials will be accurately updated for the benefit of the pupils. In addition, a field tour would be scheduled if enough time would be allowed for an academic year.

4. Analysis and action taken of Employers feedback:

According to the report analysis, the majority of employers expressed satisfaction with the curriculum and teaching methods. They also recognized the effort put forth in recognizing students' accomplishments and thought the syllabus was current and relevant. They were very appreciative of our institute's pupils in every way and urged them to keep up the good work.

5. Analysis and Action taken of Practice Teaching School Feedback:

The curriculum components of the institution already caused anxiety in the practise teaching schools. They also have serious concerns about the curriculum's ability to support each student's entire development. A few practise teaching institutions stated that curriculum has to be more up to date with current demands. All teachers will receive a copy of the action taken report, which will guarantee improved material delivery in the classroom. Actions to be taken with regard to Practice Teaching School Feedback Analysis -- Ninety percent of internship school headmasters expressed appreciation for our teacher trainee's capacity to contribute to the school's vision and mission. According to an analysis of their feedback reports, they also found value in our college's curriculum and syllabus.

6. Analysis and action taken of Alumni Feedback :

Upon reviewing the alumni feedback report that was sent to them in the form of a brief written explanation, it was discovered that most of them were satisfied with the curriculum and gave favorable comments. The decision to proceed with the same fervor in both curriculum planning and transactions was then made with great enthusiasm. It is advisable for the teachers to schedule a few more extra activities to help reduce the cognitive strain on the children.
